

Amendments to the Specification

In response to the Examiner's suggestions, the Applicant has reformatted the specification to provide section headings. Please replace the original specification with the attached, replacement specification. The specification was also amended to remove references to the claims. In addition, paragraphs 22 and 24 were amended to provide numbers for various elements in the drawings. No new matter was provided.